

Ogier partner sworn in as Notary Public

Ogier partner Advocate Julie Melia has been sworn in as a Notary Public.

Downloads:

 Julie M.jpg

Julie joins fellow partners Advocates Raulin Amy and Steve Meiklejohn in being able to offer notarial services to private and institutional clients.

Notaries are members of one of the oldest branches of the legal profession and enjoy global recognition when it comes to verifying and authenticating documents, acts and events to render them acceptable to authorities and courts in foreign jurisdictions.

Julie has been an Advocate of the Royal Court for 27 years, is a partner in Ogier's property law group and leads the firm's Jersey probate and estates practice.

Julie said: "I am pleased have gained this additional qualification and to now join Raulin and Steve in offering this important service to our existing and new clients."

The information and expressions of opinion contained in this guide are not intended to be a comprehensive study or to provide legal advice and should not be treated as a substitute for specific advice concerning individual situations.

Contact Us

For a friendly chat call the residential property team on

Ogier uses cookies to help us improve our services and to enhance your experience of our site. By continuing to browse the site you are agreeing to our use of cookies. For more details about cookies and how to manage them, see our cookie policy

× Accept and close